

R&A FOUNDATION EDUCATIONAL AWARDS INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

The R&A awards individual scholarships to selected students in full time education who meet the minimum criteria set out below. Students wishing to make application for a scholarship should apply using the appropriate form between 1 August and 30 September for that academic year. (Form may be downloaded from this website)

Mission Statement: "To identify and assist the development of student golfers of international standard during their course of study"

Applicants must meet the following minimum criteria :

- (a) hold a current handicap of +1 or better for men and 3 or better for women.
- or
- (b) have been identified by their national governing body and offered a place in a national squad.

In addition, the following conditions are attached to R&A scholarship awards:

1. Scholarships are open to any registered student in full time study in tertiary education.
2. Scholarships will be awarded on an annual basis. Those in receipt of awards must complete and return a report giving details of their golf and academic progress during the year.
3. Scholarships may be used for tuition fees, books, board and lodging, competition entry fees, golf club subscriptions and expenses and otherwise spent in accordance with the Rules of Amateur Status.
4. The R&A Training Panel will award scholarships via a staff member at the place of study or, alternatively, through an R&A affiliated national governing body, who/which will be responsible for overseeing spending and to whom/which the scholar must report.
5. Applicants who have been in receipt of an R&A scholarship must ensure that the annual report form is returned prior to making this application.
6. Scholarships are awarded at the discretion of the R&A Training Panel which reserves the right to withdraw funding at any time without giving reason for its decision.

INSTITUTION AWARDS

The R&A awards grants to selected educational institutions which offer golf programmes to their full time students.

For further information please contact:
Alison White
Assistant Director - Golf Development
The R&A
St Andrews
Fife, KY16 9JD
AlisonWhite@RandA.org

